Visit and guided tour of Hatfield House.

Escape into the past and enjoy a perfect day out. Hatfield House is steeped in 400 years of history. It was the childhood home of Elizabeth 1; the Elizabethan and Jacobean style house displays centuries of treasures collected by the Cecil family.

We will also be able to explore the gardens which date from the early 17C, when Robert Cecil employed John Tradescant the Elder to collect plants from all over Europe.

Date Wednesday 10 July 2019

Meeting: Darenth Car park. 08.45 to leave at 9.00

Schedule: Arrival at Hatfield House at approximately 10.30

10.30 refreshments
